Serial Nos. 1

Part B for January. 1934

SUBJECT

Prohibiting government servants from attending political meetings or conferences at which political topics & topics criticising the government will be discussed.

No. 2373-423/CS. 99-33-1

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM. 10.1.34

Instances have come to the notice of Government, of Government Officers opening or attending Conferences which are ostensibly intended for discussing communal social or economic subjects but at which the policy or actions of Government have come up for discussion and criticism.

The attention of all officers is invited to rules 53 and 54 of the Government servants Conduct Rules issued with G.O. No. G.3157-206/G.M. 8-32-2 dated 5th November 1932 which prohibit Government servants from attending political meetings or conferences at which political topics form the subject matter of the discussions or resolutions. Government desire to impress on their officers the desirability of their strictly adhering to the spirit of these rules and not participating in any manner in Conferences - purely communal or otherwise - where they may have to listen to speeches etc., criticising the policy of Government.

Government Servants Conduct Rules

Invites the attention of all Government Officers to rules 53 and 54 of the——— prohibiting Government servants from attending political meetings or conferences at which political topics and topics critising the Government will be discussed and directs that the rules should be strictly adhered to.

Official Memorandum.

Instances have come to the notice of Government, of Government Officers opening or attending Conferences which are ostensibly intended for discussing communal, social or economic subjects but at which the policy or actions of Government have come up for discussion and criticism.

The attention of all officers is invited to *rules 53 and 54 of the Government servants Conduct Rules issued with Government Order No.G. 3157-206/G.M.8-32-2 dated 5th November 1932, which prohibit Government servants from attending political meetings or conferences at which political topics form the subject matter of the discussions or resolutions. Government desire to impress on their officers the desirability of their strictly adhering to the spirit of these rules and not participating in any manner in Conferences-purely communal or otherwise-where they may have to listen to speeches criticising the policy of Government.

*53. Except as provided for in the above rules, a Government servant may not take part in, or subscribe in aid of, any political movement. Nor may he attend any political meeting, his presence at which is likely to be misconstrued or to impair his public usefulness. When there is room for doubt whether any action which a Government servant proposes to take will contravene the provisions of this rule, he should refer the matter for orders to the Government authority to whom he is immediately subordinate.

54. In regard, however, to purely religious, social, educational, economic, or other conferences in which political topics will not form the subject matter of the discussions or resolutions, a Government servant is not prohibited from taking any leading part such as presiding or moving any important resolution.

N.B.- The above rules apply equally to conferences and meetings held within or outside the State. But in the case of conferences held outside the State, the sanction of Government shall be previously obtained by the offical wishing to participate in such conference, submitting to the Government wherever possible the detailed agenda of the forthcoming conference and the copy of the full proceedings of the previous conferences, if any.

By Order,
R. RANGA RAO,
Chief Secretary to Government.
